

Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Help

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
Domestic Violence Helpline	Pierce County	Anyone affected by domestic violence.	Phone number to call when in need of help due to domestic violence.	(253) 798-4166 or 24-hour line at 1-800-764-2420.	Call if needed.	Free.
Family Renewal Domestic Violence Shelter/Safe House (24 hours)	Pierce County	Women/families in need of shelter due to domestic violence.	Family Renewal Shelter offers a variety of services. Among them are: Case Management and legal advocacy provided to help families with legal issues, housing, educational and employment searches, relocation and change of identity; Emergency advocacy and transportation from hospitals, police stations, churches, motels and neighbors, as well as transportation to residents scheduled medical, legal and personal appointments; On-site animal kennel allows families to not have to abandon their beloved family pets; Driver's Education is provided for women who come to the shelter that have never been allowed to learn to drive; On-site Warehouse provides women with a place to store valued possessions that otherwise would be left behind; and Partnership with Domestic Peace to provide transitional housing.	(253) 475-9010 or (24 hour hotline) 1-(888) 550-3915	Call for more information.	Free.

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
KWA Women's Shelter	Contact KWA.	Women and children in need of safety and shelter.	A safe place to stay at an undisclosed location. Call the Korean Women's Association for assistance and direction. Shelter is open to all ethnicities.	(253) 535-4202 or 1-888-508-2780	Call.	Free.
Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney Domestic Violence Unit	930 Tacoma Avenue South, Room 946 Tacoma, WA 98402	Victims of domestic violence.	Multi-agency collaboration that provides legal help and representation for victims of domestic violence. Due to the collaborative nature of the unit, a person can walk through one door and access the services of the Clerk's Office, the Sheriff's Department and the Prosecutor's Office. While there a person can get a protection order, talk with a victim advocate, file a report on an incident, and talk with an attorney that is handling his/her case. The unit also refers clients to the Family Services Unit.	(253) 798-7400  There is also a lot of information on the website: www.co.pierce.wa.us	Call or stop by if needed.	Free.
Proud African American Youth Society (PAAYS)	Contact PAAYS.	Women, victims of domestic violence.	PAAYS supports the Daisy Stallworth Domestic Violence program which meets as a support group for women affected by DV issues. PAAYS and the Daisy Stallworth program can also give referrals for counseling.	Contact PAAYS at (253)572-1129.	Call for more information, or attend the meeting.	Free.  Counseling may be additional, call for specifics.

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
Sexual Assault Center of Pierce County	633 North Mildred St., Suite J Tacoma, WA 98406	Anyone affected by sexual assault.	The Sexual Assault Center provides services to any victim of sexual assault or abuse, recent or past. They also assist family members and friends or those who have been sexually assaulted or abused. In addition, they provide prevention education, community education, and professional training. They also have a 24-hour crisis, information, and referral line.	24-hour line (253) 474-7273 or 1-800-756-7273 TTY (253) 274-0448	Call if needed.	Free services: crisis line, and medical and legal advocacy  Services with a fee: support and therapy groups, individual, couples, and family therapy, education and training services. There is a sliding fee scale.
Statewide Domestic Violence Hotline	Washington State	Anyone in need of help due to domestic violence.	A safe number to call for anyone who is experiencing domestic violence.	1-800-562-6025	Call if needed.	Free.
We Are Family Domestic Violence Program	Korean Women's Association 123 E. 96 th St. Tacoma, WA 98445	Anyone in need of help due to domestic violence	Domestic Violence Program exists to reduce the number of domestic violence situations among the general public and, more specifically among the Asian and Pacific Islander communities in the City of Tacoma, City of Lakewood, and the greater Pierce County area. The treatment program is a one-year program consisting of twenty-six consecutive weekly sessions, and six consecutive monthly sessions. Group will be facilitated by a certified professional.	(253) 535-4202 or 1-888-508-2780	Call for more information	Free.

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
YWCA Women's Shelter (24 hours)	405 Broadway Tacoma, WA 98402	Women/children in need of shelter due to domestic violence (only available to male children under the age of 12).	The Women's Support Shelter provides shelter, basic needs, and support services for women and children for up to 90 days. Support services include individualized case management, education, counseling, psycho-educational support groups, children's services, and 24-hour on-site advocacy. Clients of the Shelter also have access to other YWCA services, including Legal Services.	24- hour line (253) 383-2593	Call for more information.	Free.