

Legal Services

Program	Location	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
NW Justice	715 Tacoma Ave. S. Tacoma, WA 98402	n/a	In partnership with Tacoma Volunteer Lawyers.	(253) 272-7879 (888) 201-1015 tac@nwjustice.org	Available Monday-Friday 9am to 5pm	Free.
Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney Domestic Violence Unit	930 Tacoma Avenue South, Room 108 Tacoma, WA 98402	Victims of domestic violence.	Multi-agency collaboration that provides legal help and representation for victims of domestic violence. Due to the collaborative nature of the unit, a person can walk through one door and access the services of the Clerk's Office, the Sheriff's Department and the Prosecutor's Office. While there a person can get a protection order, talk with a victim advocate, file a report on an incident, and talk with an attorney that is handling his/her case. The unit also refers clients to the Family Services Unit.	(253) 798-7400 There is also a lot of information on the website: www.co.pierce.wa.us/pc/services/assist/domvio/domvio.htm	Call or stop by if needed.	Free.
Volunteer Legal Services	930 Tacoma Ave. South Suite 535 Tacoma	n/a	A project of the Tacoma/Pierce County Bar Association.	(253) 572-5134		Free.