

Services for Children and Youth affected by HIV/AIDS (child or child's parent has HIV/AIDS)

Program	Location(s)	Population Served	Program Description	Contact Information	How to Enroll	Cost to Participants
Pierce County AIDS Foundation	625 Commerce Street, Suite 10 Tacoma, WA 98402	All ages.	The mission of the Pierce County AIDS Foundation is to affirm the dignity of all persons, promote the prevention of HIV infection through education and service, assist persons living with HIV/AIDS and their families, and oppose discrimination based on sexism, racism and homophobia. Free and confidential HIV testing and counseling on Thursday 9:00-1:00.	(253) 383-2565	Call or stop by to talk with someone.	Free unless otherwise stated.
REACH Ministries	309 S. G St. Suite 2 Tacoma, WA 98405	Children and youth (up to age 18) who have HIV/AIDS or who have a parent who has HIV/AIDS or has died from AIDS.	REACH offers a year-round mentoring program and support for children and families affected by HIV/AIDS. They also offer a camping experience for the children and their families called Northwest REACH Camp. All services are provided with confidentiality.	(253) 383-7616 or email info@reachministries.org	Call office to enroll in programs or find out more about services offered. Children are often referred to the program from Children's Hospital in Seattle.	Free.
Regeneration Project	P.O Box 50030 Bellevue, WA 98015	Children and youth (up to age 21) who have a parent who has HIV/AIDS or has died from AIDS.	The Regeneration Project provides college and vocational scholarships, Life Coaching, and adoption support for children who have lost one or both parents due to HIV/AIDS.	1-800-447-7143 www.regenerationproject.org	Contact the Regeneration Project for more information.	Free.
Tacoma Pierce County Health Department	3629 South D Street Tacoma, WA 98418	All ages.	Free and confidential HIV testing and counseling on Tuesdays: 8:30 - 4:00. Closed Mon, Wed, Thu, Fri	253 798-6410	Call to make an appointment. Walk-in appointments also available.	Free.
Washington State HIV Hotline	Washington state.	All ages.	Confidential information about HIV/AIDS and referrals for those in need of testing or support.	1-800-272-AIDS	Call if needed.	Free.