

Native Parent Advocacy & Empowerment Day

October 14, 2011

Chief Leschi Schools

5625 52nd St East, Puyallup WA 98371

Sponsored by the Washington State Indian Education Association

In cooperation with Chief Leschi Schools, Tulalip Tribes, and the OSPI Indian Education Office

Parents/grandparents/guardians of Native children are invited to attend an exciting day devoted to the advocacy and empowerment of our children's caretakers. This will take place on Friday, October 14, 2011, 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, at Chief Leschi Schools and will feature keynote speakers and panel presentations on the following topics:

- Parents as advocates in advancing Native children's agenda (teambuilding, relationship building, etc.)
- Parents as the first and most important teachers of their children
- Conversations/insights from teachers and practitioners (preschool to high school)
- Promoting healthy living through Native culture & language

There will be a minimal registration fee of $25 per person to cover materials and lunches. Free childcare will be provided onsite for ages 4 - 12, but must be arranged in advance. Please register by Friday September 30th to ensure your spot.

Please submit one registration form for each person attending.
