

CAFÉ USA is a flexible food fare consisting of six stand alone formats which feature a wide variety of contemporary food selections that satisfy the diverse eating habits of today's students.

Customer preference decides which formats best use existing facilities. They are clustered in the serving area and may be easily changed to address new trends or provide a change of pace. This system provides exceptional program flexibility, meeting nutritional USDA pattern meals and a la carte selections.

The CAFÉ USA format allows Tacoma School District to maximize customer satisfaction, provide fast service and creatively merchandise to attract and retain customers.
