

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 2 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (MODERATE RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On December 5, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 1500 block of Yakima Avenue, in the City of Tacoma.

Gerald A. Bryant

Black Male

Age: 27

Hair: Black Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'11" Weight: 165-lbs

In 2001, BRYANT was convicted of INDECENT LIBERTIES with FORCIBLE COMPULSION in Pierce County. According to official file documents, BRYANT (age 16) sexually assaulted a 17-year-old non-familial female victim. BRYANT participated in a Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. BRYANT is required to report any change of address, employment, and school enrollment to the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 566,782 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 18,885 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 935 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 or Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.co.pierce.wa.us. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.+

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 2 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (MODERATE RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On November 28th, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 3300 block of South Alaska Street, in the City of Tacoma.

David C. Daniels

Black Male

Age: 19

Hair: Black Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'9" Weight: 185-lbs

In 2007, DANIELS was convicted of ASSAULT 3rd DEGREE with SEXUAL MOTIVATION in Pierce County. According to official file documents, DANIELS (age 13) sexually assaulted a known non-familial male (ages 9). This assault occurred in front of the victim's brother (age 7). DANIELS refused to participate in a Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. DANIELS is required to report any change of address, employment, and school enrollment to the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 566,782 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 18,885 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 925 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 or Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.co.pierce.wa.us. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (HIGH RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On December 6, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 3400 block of East I Street, in the City of Tacoma.

Craig K. McCloud

Native American Male

Age: 38

Hair: Black Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'9" Weight: 200-lbs

In 1996, MCCLOUD was convicted of RAPE 1st Degree in Thurston County. According to official file documents, he sexually assaulted a 17-year old non-familial female at gun point. MCCLOUD has also been convicted of FAILING TO REGISTER AS A SEX OFFENDER in Thurston County and Pierce County. MCCLOUD did not participate in the Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. There is no documentation in the file to show that he has participated in any sexual deviancy treatment in the community either.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are approximately 19,086 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are currently 936 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 or Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.PierceSheriff.org. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (HIGH RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On December 6, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 2300 block of Fawcett Avenue, in the City of Tacoma.

Arthur G. Parry Jr.

White Male

Age: 54

Hair: Brown Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'11" Weight: 200-lbs

In 1997, PARRY was convicted of CHILD RAPE 1st Degree in Pierce County. According to official file documents, he sexually assaulted a 5-year old non-familial male. Parry has also been convicted of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender four times since 2007 all in Pierce County. PARRY did not complete the Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. There is no documentation in the file to show that he has participated in any sexual deviancy treatment in the community either. He will be supervised by the Department of Corrections for 36-months. He is required to report any change of address, employment or school enrollment.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 550,000 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 19,086 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 935 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 or Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.PierceSheriff.org. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 2 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (MODERATE RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On November 28, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 3500 block of McKinley Avenue, in the City of Tacoma.

Arthur M. Rawcliffe

White Male

Age: 48

Hair: Brown Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'11" Weight: 220-lbs

In 2003, RAWCLIFFE was convicted of ASSAULT of a CHILD THIRD DEGREE with SEXUAL MOTIVATION in Pierce County. According to official file documents, RAWCLIFFE sexually assaulted a known 13-year-old male victim.

In 1999, RAWCLIFFE was convicted of CHILD MOLESTATION FIRST and THIRD DEGREE. He was also convicted of RAPE of a CHILD THIRD DEGREE, all in Pierce County. According to official file documents, RAWCLIFFE sexually assaulted his 9 year old stepdaughter over a 3 to 5 year period. RAWCLIFFE participated in a Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. RAWCLIFFE is required to report any change of address, employment, and school enrollment to the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 566,782 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 18,885 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 935 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 or Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.PierceSheriff.org. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN
LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE
(HIGH RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On December 5th, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 3900 block of Mason Loop Road, in the City of Tacoma.

Jimmy D. Thompson

Black Male

Age: 56

Hair: Black Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'10" Weight: 185-lbs

In 1980, THOMPSON was convicted of RAPE 1st DEGREE in Pierce County. According to official file documents, THOMPSON (age 25) sexually assaulted and stabbed a known adult female. THOMPSON participated in a Sex Offender Treatment Program while incarcerated. THOMPSON is required to report any change of address, employment, and school enrollment to the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 566,782 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 18,885 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 935 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 or Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.PierceSheriff.org. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.

City of Tacoma

Police Department
3701 South Pine Street
Tacoma, Washington 98409

SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE (HIGH RISK TO RE-OFFEND)

The Tacoma Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's release when; in the discretion of the agency, the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level which reflects the potential to re-offend. This sex offender has served the sentence imposed by the courts AND IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME.

The TACOMA POLICE DEPARTMENT has no legal authority to direct where a sex offender may or may not live. Constructive community action through reporting parole violations is beneficial, but abuse of information through harassment, threats or intimidation could jeopardize the community notification process and will not be tolerated. It is our belief that an informed public is a safer public, and we advocate the responsible use of the following information.

On December 8, 2011 the following offender registered to live in the 3400 block of McKinley Avenue, in the City of Tacoma.

Matthew M. Turner

Black Male

Age: 24

Hair: Black Eyes: Brown

Height: 5'10" Weight: 160-lbs

In 2004, TURNER was convicted of Rape 1st Degree in Pierce County. According to official file documents, TURNER (age 16) sexually assaulted a known 10 year old female, who was his next door neighbor. TURNER failed to complete the Sex Offender Treatment Program during his recent incarceration. TURNER is required to report any change of address, employment, and school enrollment to the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 566,782 offenders who have registered to live in the United States. There are approximately 18,885 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. In the City of Tacoma, there are approximately 936 offenders who have registered. There are approximately 2,900 sex offenders who have registered with the Pierce County Sheriff Department.

The Tacoma Police Department Community Liaison Officers are available to provide you with useful information on personal safety. They can be reached at www.tacomapolice.org or you can call Detective Douglas Fuller (253) 591-5989 or Detective David Lucky (253) 591-5869 (Registered Sex/Kidnap Offender Unit). You can view a list of sex offenders in Pierce County by visiting www.PierceSheriff.org. If you have information regarding a current criminal activity of this or any other offender, please call 911.