The “Lakewood Youth Future Academy” is a summit for local youth to learn about how to participate in the civic arena, how to stay healthy, how to be an adult, and how to take care of the environment around them. The event will provide students with valuable networking and professional development opportunities, connecting them with successful adults and high-achieving students. The summit will consist of workshops lead by local leaders, activists, and mentors geared towards young adults preparing to contribute to society.

The Academy will be held at the Lakewood Boys and Girls Club (10402 Kline St. SW Lakewood) on April 13th from 9:00a to 3:00p (with breakfast and lunch provided)

Questions can be directed to Cameron Fairfield, Recreation Coordinator for the City of Lakewood, at cfairfield@cityoflakewood.us
