NOTE: Parent/Guardian are responsible for providing the required medication to designated program staff on the first day of summer school. Medication currently held at the school must be picked up prior to the end of the regular school year. Summer School Staff will not have access to medications from the regular school year. If registration is completed prior to end of school year, this information will be transferred for the student. If registration is completed after the school year has ended, the parent/guardian is responsible for providing a copy to designated program staff on or before the student's first day in summer school. A notification will be communicated to the summer school instructor.
